Welcome, CAC Space Coast !

In March, CACI welcomed another new chapter to its nationwide family. The Catholic Alumni Club Space Coast — located in the Melbourne area of the diocese of Orlando in central Florida — was established. (This group should not be confused with a previous CAC chapter called Space Coast, which was located in Miami).

John Barthelmy of Melbourne contacted CACI in May 2003 and inquired about establishing a CAC chapter in his area. After working long and hard laying the groundwork, John led a diocesan-wide formation meeting in late February, and organized an enthusiastic group that has assumed leadership positions and taken pivotal roles in ensuring club growth. The CAC Space Coast is up and running!

CACI warmly welcomes the single professional Catholics in the diocese of Orlando's central Florida area. We look forward to meeting you at our regionals and our national convention in San Antonio in late July.

Changes are in the Wind for CACI

President Outlines Important Matters for Club Discussion

Spring brings new growth. The trees start to bud, the birds return from their winter homes, and we look forward to sunshine and warmer weather. Those of us on the executive board are busy working to not only bring you a great convention in July, but we are introducing possible changes to the organization itself.

The constitutional revision committee will be presenting changes in the CACI bylaws. First, we propose to change the name of the organization to better represent who we are. We once were named - The National Association of Catholic Alumni Clubs. Many have asked "Alumni of what college." Therefore, the change will suggest that the name of the organization be - The National Association of Catholic Single Adults Clubs. Any new organization admitted to CACI will have the name Catholic Single Adults Club of (City name) or (City name) Catholic Single Adults Club. Clubs that have the CAC of _____ name will continue to have that name unless the members of that club wish to change it.

The second change deals with the membership requirements of the club. One can be a member by being Catholic, single, and over 21. The clubs that wish to have more restrictive membership requirements can do so. The Catholic Church now accepts divorced men and women as single and CACI is more stringent than the church. The club can be a social, cultural, and religious outlet for the divorced person. If by chance a divorced person finds a person to marry in the club, then he or she can seek an annulment. By making this change, the clubs can provide a service to the Catholic Church by letting divorced persons be members of CACI.

The educational requirements for membership have changed many times over the years. When the organization began, it was to let single, college-educated men and women meet, and eventually get married. This was in the late 1950s. Over 50 years later the times have changed and with the cost of college today, many professional men and women do not attend college. Why should we prohibit these people from being members?

As mentioned before, any club can adopt more restrictive membership requirements. Many clubs have difficulties increasing their membership. Not only the smaller clubs, but every club is continuing to lose members.

Take some time and discuss these changes with your club. The clubs will vote on all of the proposed amendments at the board meeting in July in San Antonio.

Speaking of San Antonio—Bob and Ellen are diligently working on making this convention one you will not forget. Detailed information is elsewhere in this newsletter. Come join us for a week of fun with friends.

The Communique is published by The Catholic Alumni Clubs International (CACI), an umbrella organization for the more than 30 local Catholic Alumni Club (CAC) chapters across the country. Members of CAC chapters are college and nursing school graduates who are free to marry in the Church.

The purpose of CACI is to host an annual national convention, facilitate communication among local clubs, and represent the interests of single Catholics in our Church at-large. The annual national convention is held during the last week of July and hosts more than 200 CACers from across the country. Smaller Regional Weekends across the United States are also offered, allowing CAC chapters in specific various regions of the country to come together for fun and fellowship.

CACI is a nonprofit organization organized under the laws of the state of Colorado. The address of President Barbara Accordino is 5710 Hasbrook Drive, Louisville, Kentucky, 40229-2944.

CACI Elections

The annual election of CACI officers will be held at our national vacation/convention in San Antonio in July. Please consider running for the following offices for which you may be qualified:

- CACI President
- CACI First Vice President
- CACI Second Vice President

If you are interested please contact CACI Secretary Janet Yntema at 313/ 882-0990 (EST) for a Candidate for Office form.

Proposed CACI Constitutional Changes

Proposed CACI Constitution changes will be voted on at our national convention this summer in San Antonio, Texas. The three major changes are to eliminate the educational requirements, eliminate the requirement that a member be free to marry in the Catholic Church, and to change our organization's name.

For the Articles and Sections involved the Constitution currently reads:

ARTICLE I

Section A. Name. The name of this Association shall be CATHOLIC ALUMNI CLUBS INTERNATIONAL.

ARTICLE III – Membership

Section A. Membership in this Association may be granted to an organization

1. Whose membership is restricted to persons who are:
 - a. Members of the Catholic Church, and
 - b. Single and free to marry in the Catholic Church, and
 - c. Who have reached the age of 21, and
 - d. (1) Graduates of a four-year accredited college, or
 - (2) Registered nurses, or
 - (3) Graduates of a two-year accredited college, or
 - (4) Other individuals, not to exceed 20% of the organization's total membership, or fifteen (15) members, whichever is higher, who have acquired the equivalent of Paragraph 1.d.(1) of this Section A in terms of education, experience of position as determined by the local organization. Admission to membership under Paragraphs 1.d(2), (3) and (4) shall be discretionary with the local organization. Membership categories 1.d(2), (3) and (4) shall be effective within the local clubs only after adoption of these categories into their local constitutions as voted upon by rules in force in the local constitutions pertaining to constitution change and the restrictions of the right to vote of members. Local clubs may elect not to include some or all of these categories 1.d.(2), (3) and (4) as part of their membership requirements.

Restrictions as to the right to vote or hold office of members admitted under the provisions of Paragraph 4.(4) shall be discretionary with the local organization.

The proposed changes will read as follows:

ARTICLE I

Section A. Name. The name of this Association shall be NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CATHOLIC SINGLE ADULTS CLUBS.

ARTICLE III – Membership

Section A. Membership in this Association may be granted to an organization

1. Whose membership is restricted to persons who are:
 - a. Members of the Catholic Church, and
 - b. Single, and
 - c. Who have reached the age of 21.

Section B. Local clubs may elect to include additional membership requirements beyond those stated in Section A, 1. a, b, c.

A mailing of this Proposal will go out to all of our clubs later in March. That mailing will highlight all proposed changes in wording with regard to the above. Such as wherever the organization's name appears both the current wording and the proposed wording will be marked. However, for brevity in Communiqué we are just printing the two sections that are the crux of the proposal.

Please see the related article on page 2 by President Barbara Accordino. She explains why the Constitutional Revision Committee (Executive Board) are looking at these changes. It is very important that you talk these changes over with your clubs, so your delegate(s) can make your voice heard this summer in San Antonio.

Eastern Region Essentials

Hello everyone,

I hope everyone's winter has not been too bad.

It is my great pleasure to welcome two new clubs to the Eastern Region: Raleigh and CAC Space Coast. I would like to thank the local club presidents for stepping forward to lead your clubs in 2004. If you haven't already done so, Teddi Tri is waiting for the local clubs to submit information for the national database.

Volunteers are the lifeblood of our group, and yes I am looking for someone to volunteer his or her talents to be the secretary for the region (which is still vacant). You can be male or female, either is welcome to fill this position.

Maybe if I tell you the duties of the Regional Secretary it will answer some questions.

- Attend the regional meetings and take the minutes of the meeting.
- Transcribe the minutes and send them to Regional Vice President to be placed in the regional delegate packet for the next meeting.

That's all there is to it. Won't you please contact me.

The Eastern Spring Regional will

Nitty-Gritty of the Midwestern Region

Hello to all fellow CAC'ers. As I write this article, I can see and hear hints of the upcoming springtime season. Soon the weather will be warmer and before we know it, May will be here and time for our Midwest Spring Regional Convention. This year we are hoping to see you on the Southern side of Cincinnati at the Marriott Airport Hotel, Memorial weekend, May 28-31, 2004. We are planning to go to an authentic Bavarian restaurant, complete with great food and a German band. We will also have a dinner and dance on Sunday night.

There will be ample opportunity to explore the surrounding area, seeing the new Newport Aquarium, Newport on the Levee, the Cincinnati Zoo, and the thrill-seekers may want to go to King's Island Amusement Park, just north of the city. We have also planned to go aboard a local river boat for an Old Fashioned Ice Cream Social while sailing down the river. So set your travel clocks, make your reservations and we'll have a grand time. There is a small detail along with the fun which is there will be a delegate's meeting sometime during the weekend. Please think and talk about the charity you would like to present at our International convention in San Antonio, Texas.

This fall the Midwest and East Regions will again hold a joint regional convention. It is October 8-10, 2004 at the Oglebay Resort near Wheeling West Virginia. The resort offers many things to do, such as, shopping, walking through their lovely gardens, tennis courts, horseback riding, enjoying the Oglebay Good Zoo with 30 acres of animals, a 1 ½ mile train ride and a miniature train exhibit, a Planetarium, the Carriage House Glass Shop with an artisan center and glass museum, even an indoor pool. We hope to see you there this fall.

The midyear meeting of the CACI Executive Board was held recently.

We thoroughly discussed the proposed revisions to our membership by-laws and the name change necessitated if the membership requirements are accepted with a vote by the delegates. Please discuss these changes with your clubs and inform your delegate of the vote on these issues that will be decided upon in San Antonio.

Speaking of the summer convention in San Antonio, the convention chairs presented the CACI Executive Board with the list of activities and it sounds like it's going to be a grand convention. Please encourage all of your members to attend. The Midwest Region will be in charge of the after-hours party on Friday night. If anyone would like to help, please contact me. Hope to see all of you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Rhonda Higgins

Wise Words From the Western Region

Greetings from the West!

The Las Vegas weekend was enjoyed by all who came from the West, the East and the Mid-West. Thank you everyone!

There are four chapters with new board of officers among the seven clubs in the Western Region. The recently elected presidents are: Karen Waldscmidt of Colorado, Bob Vernverloh of Los Angeles, Mary Moreno of Orange County, and Richard Latour of Sacramento. Congratulations to you all for stepping forward to face the challenges and needs of the single, professional Catholics in your respective areas. In like manner, the same goes to Mary Lombrana of Phoenix, and Patti Hurt of San Diego who have gone beyond their 2-year term but continue to volunteer to lead their clubs since no other would. Mary Lucero of San Francisco is in her 2-year term leading this chapter.

All chapters are working hard to face challenges of maintaining and increasing memberships. Connecting with the Archdioceses down to the parishes, membership drives through major club events like dances, mix and mingle, and tie-ups with other Catholic single clubs in the area are in the works to put out CAC in the public arena of the west. Sample letters to parishes are being sent out to the seven clubs to facilitate their visiting/ revisiting with their respective parishes who may be able to help in reaching out for more single, professional Catholics in their sites. In addition, reminder of using the new CAC flyer and brochure to be posted in public places is continuously undertaken. In the area of joint activities between clubs, Sacramento and San Francisco may be having a joint hiking event sometime this May.

Three interested parties from this region had contacted the undersigned of wanting to start a CAC in their respective areas. Two of them who seemed to signify a seeming initial interest had been referred to the CACI Office of Development Program for continuous dialogue and follow-up work.

During the successful regional meeting, Mary's Shelter, an organization assisting unwed mothers and their born babies had been voted as the Western Region's charitable institution for the year 2004. Temecula, a place on the border of Orange County and San Diego had also been voted as the next Regional Weekend site as a winter getaway during the Martin Luther King's weekend in 2005. We are giving enough time

Fr. Jack Frerker Publishes Novel

Most CAC'ers (except those who have been in CACI about 6 years or less) know Fr. Jack Frerker, former CACI Chaplain, CACI's best teller of jokes and stories.

Fr. Jack very recently retired and is now living in Olympia, WA. He has published his first book, a priest detective mystery novel. The title of the book is "Heat" and is about an elderly pastor in downstate Illinois, which is where Fr. Jack is from.

Be on the lookout for Fr. Jack at the San Antonio Convention where you can meet this famous author at a book signing. He will also have some books for purchase.

Here's more good news! Cindy Parker our Assistant VP had accepted to chair the 2004 Newsletter Award Contest, a volunteer position which I held for the past two years. Congratulations Cindy!

In the meantime, the minutes of the Las Vegas weekend and the Regional Treasury report will be coming your way. Thank you, Bob Venverloh and Marie Acebo, Regional Secretary and interim Regional Treasurer, respectively.

I will continue to communicate with you all and please continue to do so with me. Thank you for your newsletters.

Cowboy's Ten Commandments

Prayer Request

Fr. Jack Frerker, former CACI Chaplain, has made a request of CACI members.

A longtime CAC member from CA (The Los Angeles club, he believes) - LOUISA KENNEDY McCOY - could use lots of prayers - health problems, largely spinal in nature, are severely affecting her - could you put out a call for prayers.

Possibly if we all used these instead of the one with all the "shalt nots" in it, we could probably understand and live up to them a lot better!

- (1) Just one God.
- (2) Honor yer Ma & Pa.
- (3) No telling tales or gossipin'.
- (4) Git yourself to Sunday meetin'.
- (5) Put nothin' before God.

- (7) No killin'.
- (8) Watch yer mouth.
- (9) Don't take what ain't yers.
- (10) Don't be hankerin' for yer buddy's stuff.

Guess Texans just kinda tell it like it is!!!!

Y'all have a good Day.

SA Today in its 3/10/03 edition had a large article on two Cowboy Churches in Texas. They printed the Cowboy's Ten Commandments posted on the wall at Cross Trails Church in Fairlie, Texas.

- (6) No foolin' around with another fellow's gal.

Ahoy Fellow CAC'ers

Come and join North Jersey (your host) for what promises to be an exciting Eastern Regional Weekend in Mystic, Connecticut June 11th to June 13th, 2004.

My fellow shipmates for this weekend voyage have informed me that there is something special in the sea air. That well-known fish personality – Tommy the Trout - has something he is dying to tell you about.

The sea breezes have scents of sightseeing at Mystic Seaport, shopping at Old Mystic Village, a possible trip to the Aquarium and I hear that there are nearby casinos for those who would like to lose a little of their treasure.

In addition to your weekend stay the package includes 2 after hours parties, breakfast for two days and a Saturday Night Dinner Dance. The cost of the weekend is $225 for a double. Passes for the seaport are also available for $13.

For further information you can call either Christine Michel at 201/384-9748 or Loretta Lovell at 201/794-9487. You can also email us at njcac@aol.com.

So happy sailing to Mystic.

Are you Interested and Available ???

There are many phases of volunteerism where CACI can use your help. Anyway you look at it, helping others in need brings a glow to your spirit. Jesus said, "Whatever you do unto others you do unto me." So... Being of service to the CACI membership is akin to being of service to God.

Some areas require very little of your time and yet are the greatest of help to others. It is unbelievable what a small gift of time can do.

Some of the jobs are as easy as collecting forms from the various clubs for awards for Community Service, New Leader, CAC'er of the Year, or Newsletter. These duties can be accomplished even if you cannot attend our fabulous Convention. If you want something a little more challenging, Communique will be in need of a new editor for 2004-2005. If you are going to the convention some of the areas you can help out with are: Credentials, Registration, Lector, Cantor, and Sacristan to name a few.

The "CACI Interest and Availability Form" lists these and many other areas you can volunteer for. If you would like to see many of the opportunities available to you or you need more information, please contact Janet Yntema at 313/882-0990 or janety602@aol.com. She will snail mail or email a form to you.

Remember the future is only a call away.
