Pittsburgh – The City of Bridges

Midwest/Eastern Region Weekend

October 7 – 9, 2016

It's a wonderful time to visit one of America's most beautiful cities. 2016 is the 200th anniversary of Pittsburgh becoming an incorporated city. Travel + Leisure magazine named Pittsburgh "One of the Best Places to Travel in 2016." Zagat named Pittsburgh the "No. 1 Top City for Food."

We will be staying at the DoubleTree by Hilton Pittsburgh Green Tree. Enjoy chocolate chip cookies and a warm welcome. Set near the South Side and only 3 miles from downtown, the hotel is within 20 minutes of Pittsburgh International Airport (PIT). There is a complimentary airport shuttle. Also, there is complimentary self-parking.

Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available in the DoubleTree hotel lobby and restaurant. Unwind with a cocktail at Champions Lounge, or grab a bite and catch up on entertainment and sports. The Marketplace Bistro offers a casual dining experience.

Explore Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh and the Andy Warhol Museum which is one of the most comprehensive single-artist museums in the world.

Pittsburgh's South Side is the city's entertainment hub, a seemingly endless parade of bars and restaurants. Discover a new view of Steel City from atop Mount Washington. Ride the Duquesne Incline funicular railroad to the observation platform for epic vistas of downtown Pittsburgh. Railroad tours include the original wooden gears, and offer insights into Pittsburgh history.

The weekend includes 2 night's lodging, 2 breakfasts, 1 dinner/dance, and 2 after-hours parties. Regional meetings will be on Saturday morning and Mass will be on Saturday afternoon. A tour of the area and additional nights' lodging (which includes breakfast) will be available. Cost is $279 for double occupancy and $415 for single occupancy.
